

Contents

Preface and acknowledgements	vii
Introduction. Approaching the study of state identity in early Italy Edward Herring & Kathryn Lomas	1
The development of ceramic production at Casale Nuovon(Lazio). Identifying the rise of complex society in the archaeological record Helen I. Loney	13
Ethnic and state identities in Greek settlements in southern Italy in the eighth and seventh century BC' John-Paul Wilson	31
“To see ourselves as others see us!” The construction of native identities in southern Italy Edward Herring	45
Cities, states and ethnic identity in southeast Italy Kathryn Lomas	79
Urbanisation, settlement, burial and people in the Albegna Valley Phil Perkins	91
Tribes, states and cities in central Italy Guy Bradleys	109
The dynamics of state societies in northwest Italy Ralph Häussler	131
Mimic? A case study in early Roman colonisation Edward Bispham	157
The first Italia Mark Pobjoy	187
Globalisation and Roman imperialism. Perspectives on identities in Roman Italy Robert Witcher	213
Addresses of contributors	227